

John Wellik will raise your taxes.

The Dallas Morning News

Tuesday, September 28, 2010

“He is open to consider a combination of taxes, fees, . . . to close the budget gap.”

*We don't need a tax and spend liberal
in Austin raising our taxes.*

We don't need a tax and spend liberal
in Austin raising our taxes.

Re-Elect Republican Will Hartnett.

Will Hartnett's No New Taxes Pledge

"I pledge to fight any new taxes, to restrain the growth of state spending in Texas, keep our budget balanced and our debt small, and guard our $9 billion Rainy Day Fund."

Endorsed by Texans for Fiscal Responsibility as a "Taxpayer Champion"

The Dallas Morning News

Thursday, September 28, 2010

Editorial: We Recommend
Hartnett in Texas House Dist. 114

... Republican Will Hartnett receives our recommendation because his long legislative experience ultimately will better serve constituents than switching to an untested newcomer. Hartnett, 54, ... is among the House's most senior members, having served in the Legislature since 1991. With a looming budget fight to tackle a projected $21 billion deficit, his seniority could play a key role in defending North Texas' priorities.

Get involved by going to www.WillHartnett.com!

Early Voting October 18-29, 2010

Election Day, Tuesday, November 2, 2010

Tammy and Will Hartnett with Warner, Will Jr., and Winston.